Example Chapter Summary

Chapter Name: Ordinary

Key Events:
August Pullman tells the reader that he is ordinary in every way, other than the way that he looks. He tells the reader that he is used to people's reactions, but his sister, Via, still gets really angry. He doesn't describe the way that he looks, but says that its worse than what the reader is imagining.

Important Quotation:
'I won't describe what I look like. Whatever you are thinking, it's probably worse'.

Why is this quotation important?
This quotation is important because it tells the reader that August Pullman's face might be quite disturbing to look at. It also tells the reader that he has very low self-esteem, because he suggests that it is 'probably worse’ than what the reader is imagining.
